TELECON

Prince Juan Carlos/Secretary Kissinger

November 20, 1975

Time: 6:45 p.m.

RELEASED IN FULL

C: This is the Prince of Spain.

K: How nice to hear from you. My warmest good wishes.

C: Thank you so much, really. I know the difficulties you are having to see if someone else can come here.

K: That is the trouble. The Vice President is definitely coming.

C: You don't think on your way?

K: Unfortunately, the President is going over Alaska. We are trying to send the Chief Justice together with the Vice President. If you can give the Vice President some time -- he is a close personal friend of mine. I will come the 15th, if I can.

C: I told Stabler he could tell you it was o.k.

K: You can count on our full support.

C: I know and I can't thank you enough -- and tell the President of my best wishes for everything.

K: We hope you will visit us in America soon.

C: I think the link is very well set.

K: How nice to hear from you.

C: We will look forward to meeting you soon.

K: Good.
